SCHOOLS SUPERINTENDENT UNVEILS M-DCPS' NEWEST DISTRICT-WIDE TECHNOLOGY PROJECT

Wrapping up the school year and building for the next one

WHO: Superintendent of Schools Alberto M. Carvalho, school and district administrators

WHAT: Promethean Interactive Whiteboards will be installed in M-DCPS classrooms as part of the district's technology upgrades

WHEN: Thursday, June 5, 2014
10 a.m.

WHERE: Hammocks Middle School
9889 Hammocks Blvd.
Miami, FL 33196

WHY: This grand-scale endeavor is one more successful project provided by the General Obligation Bond, which was overwhelmingly supported by Miami-Dade voters in November 2012. The bond provided for the modernization and construction of district schools, as well as technology upgrades, including more than 10,000 Promethean Interactive Whiteboards to be installed across the district.
